The Constitution outlines the Club's objectives and contains the Incorporated Rules of the Club that have been in force since MOCA became an incorporated body on August 28, 1989, and are the basic legal requirements under which the Club operates. The Constitution can only be changed by a Special Resolution at a general meeting of members. The changes then have to be lodged with the Registry of Co-operatives & Associations, Fair Trading NSW.

The Rules & Regulations of the Club are not part of the Constitution and are documented separately.
